The Code Fellows Vision

<Software development skills for a better life, for a better community, and for a better world./>

The Code Fellows Mission

Diversity drives innovation – when we limit who can contribute, we in turn limit what problems we can solve.

— Telle Whitney —

AZ QUOTES

<We guide people from all backgrounds to change their lives through fast-paced, career-focused education. We shape passionate coders with immersive training to meet industry needs and improve diversity in the tech scene./>

Fixed Mindset vs. Growth Mindset

Based on the work of Dr. Carol Dweck

I believe that my [Intelligence, Personality, Character] is inherent and static. Locked-down or fixed. My potential is determined at birth. It doesn't change.

I believe that my [Intelligence, Personality, Character] can be continuously developed. My true potential is unknown and unknowable.

Fixed
Mindset

Avoid failure
Desire to Look smart
Avoids challenges
Stick to what they know
Feedback and criticism is personal
They don't change or improve

Growth
Mindset

Desire continuous learning
Confront uncertainties.
Embracing challenges
Not afraid to fail
Put lots of effort to learn
Feedback is about current capabilities

... YET!

DON'T PRAISE

INTELLIGENCE
ABILITIES

DO PRAISE

THE PROCESS
EFFORT

What Can I Say To Myself?

Instead of:

Try thinking:

I'm not that good at this.

What am I missing?

I'm awesome at this.

I'm on the right track.

I give up.

I'll use some of the strategies we've learned.

This is too hard.

This may take some time and effort.

I can't make this any better.

I can always improve, so I'll keep on trying.

I just can't do maths.

I'm going to train my brain in maths.

I made a mistake.

Mistakes help me learn better.

She's so smart. I'll never be that smart.

I'm going to figure out how she does it so I can try it.

Plan A didn't work.

Good thing the alphabet has 25 more letters.

It's good enough.

Is it really my best work?
